Your Seminary – Your Mission

How does the seminary fit into the mission of your congregation? Think about it. In spite of the important role that the lay men and women in the church play in your congregation, you invariably expect your pastor to play a central role. He is the public face of the congregation. He has been entrusted with the responsibility of preaching and teaching the Word of God through which the Holy Spirit brings people to faith and sustains them in it. He bears the joyous burden of caring for the flock of Christ on a day-by-day basis, exercising the Office of the Keys by proclaiming to you the forgiveness of sins for the sake of Christ. What would your congregation do without men to fill the office of the ministry in its midst?

But, if your pastor is to do what you want him to do – what you need him to do, he must have first been prepared, nurtured, and formed. This is the pattern which Christ Himself gave us. Christ didn't simply call the disciples and send them out. For about three years, our Lord taught those who would bring God's Word to the world. For three years, He prepared them for their ministry. The training which the apostles received from Christ was integral to the world-wide mission of the church in the first century. The training of pastors is also what our church recognized to be important so that Christ's message of salvation would go out into our world today.

It is important that you see the preparation which the seminary provides as a crucial part of your congregation's mission. God chose to carry out

DR. NORMAN J. THREINEN

His mission through flesh and blood people – through pastors. And to prepare these pastors, the seminaries of the church exist. We encourage your support through your prayers, by identifying and encouraging potential pastors to prepare for the ministry, and by supporting your seminary with the gifts which your Lord has placed into your hands. God bless you richly.

Your Servant for Jesus' Sake,

The Cloak of Elijah 1 KINGS 19:19

TODD GUGGENMOS

Hometown: Unity, Saskatchewan

It's been a joy to see you grow in knowledge and skills, and in the confidence to use these—and the gifts the Lord has given you—as a servant for Jesus' sake. Everything you've done in life until now has been preparing you for the ministry that lies ahead. That doesn't mean everything will be easy, but the Lord who has been preparing the way and walking with you along it will continue to bless you, so that you can be a blessing to others. Cling to Him; receive His grace, and serve—to His glory and your joy!

TAKE WING – PAT MOORE (PRESIDENT), AARON ASTLEY, KEITH HOVELAND, ERIC MOFFETT

Blessings and Thanks

Through the support received from you, Concordia Lutheran Seminary Guild was able to assist the seminary in so many ways.

Aaron Astley, Keith Hoveland and Eric Moffett participated in the Take Wing program this year. This program allows students to visit one of our LCC churches, participate in a variety of activities and also to be an ambassador for the seminary. Who better to ask about our Seminary than a student? The cost for each student to travel and participate in Take Wing is covered by the Seminary Guild.

The annual Seminary wives retreat was held in November, the chapel flooring was refurbished and gift cards and books were purchased for the graduating students and their wives, the President's luncheon and Sacred Convocation goodies were provided by the guild.

Much success has been seen with the donation and use of grocery gift cards to make it easier to manage supporting our students need for food and other household items.

Moving forward are plans to further assist with needed building renovations and repairs along with replacement of well worn furnishings. Of course, our students' needs are always in the forefront. Any way we can assist our future pastors is such a blessing and honour.

We would like to thank everyone who so generously donates their prayers, time, talents, and funds to the support of our Seminary community.

Pat Moore, President
CLS Guild

CONGRATULATIONS

We rejoice with Professor Jonathan Kraemer as he receives his Master of Sacred Theology degree from Concordia Seminary, St. Louis this spring.

We rejoice also with Mr. Jeffrey Nachtigall, our Registrar, as he receives a Post-Baccalaureate Certificate in Technology Based Learning from Athabasca University this spring. He has been accepted into the Master of Education (Distance Education) program at Athabasca University, which he will resume this fall.

Adopt-a-Student

Adopt-A-Student is a program which pairs seminary students with individuals and groups (such as LWML societies) who desire to encourage and support them in their preparation for ministry. Each year sponsors commit to supporting their student in whatever way they can, whether it is corresponding with the student, praying for them, or sending financial support.

For information about the Adopt-A-Student program, and to access the enrollment form for the 2013 –2014 school year, go online to: www.concordiasem.ab.ca/enrolment/adopt_a_student.php
